

	A Life Worth Living
 BIG IDEA	As your relationships go, so goes your life.
 ICE BREAKER	What's one lesson you learned in kindergarten that still applies to your life today?
 MAIN POINTS	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Truths don't need to be new—they need to be applied. ● God created us for community. ● Jesus modeled life in community. ● Community is essential, not optional. ● Community is forged, not found. You have to put in effort.
 DISCUSS	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What most stood out to you from the message this weekend? Why? 2. Why do you think people can attend church for years and hear many sermons but still not live more like Jesus? What prevents the gap between knowing and doing? 3. What's one truth from Scripture you already know, but struggle to live out consistently? 4. On a scale of 1-10, how would you rate the current state of your relationships? Is your life feeling full of community, or more isolated? 5. Pastor Cal shared about his dogs Scout and Millie - they had opposite temperaments but helped each other thrive. How can people with different personalities strengthen each other in community? 6. What would need to change in your current lifestyle to make deeper community a priority?
 NEXT STEP	Choose one way to practice deepening relationships and act on it: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Call a friend you haven't talked to in a while. ● Meet someone new (or familiar) for coffee or lunch. ● Invite someone over for dinner or dessert. ● Invite someone to join your group
 SCRIPTURE	Ecclesiastes 4:9-10-"Two are better than one... If one falls down, his friend can help him up." Hebrews 10:24-25- "Let us consider how we may spur one another on toward love and good deeds..let us not give up meeting together."
 NEXT WEEK SNEAK PEAK	Join us next week and invite a friend as we start a new series on Values!
